

Congratulations to Caltech's newest alumni!

In a year when many students were not able to personally visit their favorite haunts and hangouts, this poster aims to bring some of their best-loved spots on campus to life for the entire community. We hope it stirs fond memories for all.

The illustrator, Michael Byers, is based in Hamilton, Ontario, and has been published by clients such as The New York Times, O, The Hollywood Reporter, The Village Voice, and more. A fan of stand-up comedy, Byers is known for fun, dynamic illustrations with bold line work. He has been named one of the 200 Best Illustrators Worldwide by Lürzer's Archive. Before going to art school, he worked as a janitor at his local YMCA, tried selling gym memberships, and did a stint in construction work.

TEAR HERE ↑

Caltech