TOGETHER AGAIN!

Celebrate Homecoming on the Hill, while cheering the Green Terror on to victory!

This booklet is your preview of the events and experiences that are awaiting you at Homecoming 2021! The following pages will not only guide you through the weekend's activities, but they also contain a history of our beloved Green Terror mascot and some green and gold breadcrumbs that will take you back into McDaniel and WMC past.

GREEN TERROR ORIGIN STORY:

The origins of the Green Terror mascot are a bit murky. Most sources agree that the first use of "Green Terror" was printed in the Western Maryland monthly. The article recounts a Western Maryland College (WMC) football game where our players were referred to as "green terrors."

October 15, 1923

The first use of "Green Terror" was centered around a football game against Washington and Lee.

1950s

1960s - 1970s

For this Green Terror iteration, WMC chose something a little closer to home: a bobcat.

1970s - 1980s

The mascot changed once again, from the cat-like characteristics into a ... duck-billed bear?
