GET VIRTUALLY CONNECTED

WITH AN ALUMNI MENTOR

The VCU Alumni African American Alumni Council invites you to join the Mentoring Circle, which connects African American graduate and undergraduate students with alumni through a yearlong mentorship. Learn more about the Mentoring Circle at go.vcu.edu/mentoringcircle, or you can register to join the program on VCU Link at go.vcu.edu/vculink.

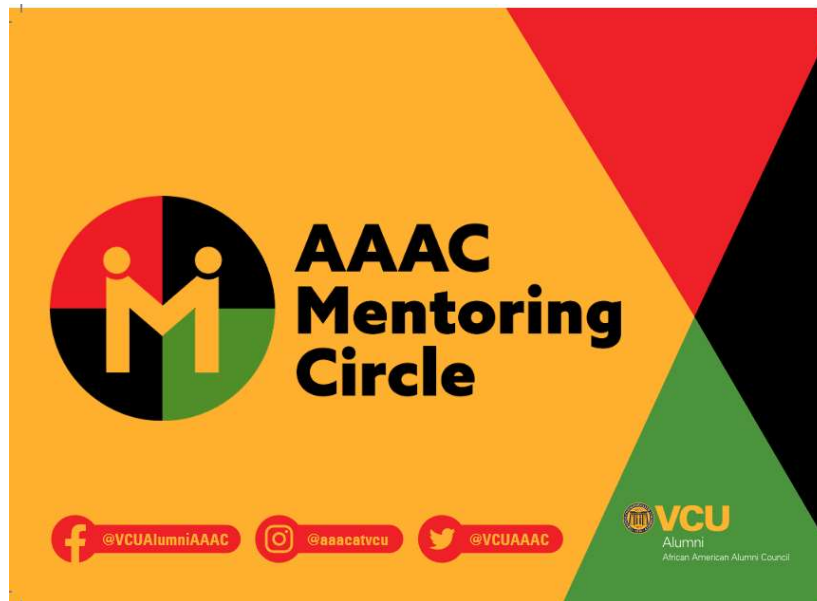

The 2022-23 cohort runs for a full year, starting in April.

WHAT IS THE AAAC MENTORING CIRCLE?

- » The Mentoring Circle and its alumni volunteers are dedicated to recruiting and retaining African American students at VCU.
- » The program connects VCU African American undergraduate students with VCU African American alumni in a one-year virtual mentoring relationship to guide students through their academic endeavors.
- » The award-winning mentoring program has served thousands of African American students who have developed into successful professionals — many of whom returned to serve as mentors.

MENTORS

Draw on real-world experience to offer mentees advice about making the right choices in school and getting ahead in their career as well as help develop their social and leadership skills.

MENTEES

Receive guidance and advice from their mentors to assist in developing the skills needed to be successful in the workforce.
