BLACK ATHLETES RECOGNITION

Please join the Georgia Tech Black Alumni Organization (GTBAO) as we celebrate 60 Years of Black Excellence and honor black athletes and their contributions as Yellow Jackets.

February 5th at the Georgia Tech v. Clemson Basketball
McCamish Pavilion

Monique Mead

Monique Mead is an associate with Alston & Bird's Intellectual Property Litigation Group in the Atlanta office. Before joining the firm, Monique served as a law clerk at the Georgia-Pacific Corporation within various departments involving intellectual property, consumer products, packaging cellulose business, mergers and acquisitions, real estate, finance, and investigation, antitrust, and compliance. She received her J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law, where she served on the law review board. Monique received her B.A. from the Georgia Institute of Technology.

Tyrone Ross

Tyrone Ross was a Track and Field athlete for GA Tech. He also has an athletics endowment in his name at Tech.

He is the CEO and Co-Founder of Onramp Invest and Founder of 401stc, a storytelling consultancy.

He is a graduate of Seton Hall University, and was also a 2004 Olympic Trials qualifier in track and field in the 400 meters.

He was recognized by Investment News 40 under 40 (2019), and WealthManagement.com as a top ten advisor set to change the industry in 2019. FinancialPlanning.com named him as one of 20 people who will change wealth management in 2020.

He was recently named as Investopedia's Top 100 financial advisors, and Think Advisor's 2021 IA25: VIP's Pushing Advisors Forward.
