

On the Cover

It had us at turtles, but Botany Pond offers many more fauna and flora to ponder. Illustration by Lucie Rice.

KEY

1. Gray Catbird
2. Japanese Maple
3. Bumblebee
4. Rhododendron
5. Green Darner Dragonfly
6. Yellow Waxbells
7. Mallard Hen
8. Rose
9. Bluebells
10. Pigeon
11. Eastern Gray Squirrel
12. Downy Woodpecker
13. Chinese Praying Mantis
14. Daylily
15. Meadow Rue
16. Crabapple
17. Azalea
18. Blue Heron
19. Ginkgo
20. Iris
21. Twelve-Spotted Skimmer
22. Honey Locust
23. Petasites Japonicus
24. Bergenia
25. Mallard Drake
26. Bleeding Heart
27. Wild Ginger
28. White-Marked Tussock Moth
29. Fern
30. Koi
31. Candy-Striped Leafhopper
32. Northern Bayberry
33. Fragrant Water-Lily
34. Mallard Duckling
35. Red-Eared Slider

Vol. 114 / No. 3

SPRING 2022

mag.uchicago.edu

1 Editor's Notes 4 Letters 9 On the Agenda

Features

22

A writer, lost and found By Susie Allen, AB'09

Nearly a century after it was banned, Gertrude Beasley's (AM 1918) memoir of her Texas upbringing reaches a new generation of readers.

24

Family doctor By Susie Allen, AB'09

Trained as a cochlear implant surgeon, Dana Suskind has taken on a new role as an advocate for American parents.

30

Off the shelf By Jeff Deutsch

Selling books is unlike selling anything else. The Seminary Co-op director counts the ways.

32

Recipe for success By Jeanie Chung

Mealtime conversation with the Korean Vegan. Plus: Two essays from The Korean Vegan Cookbook by Joanne Lee Molinaro, JD'04.

11

UChicago Journal

Research and news in brief

37

Peer Review

What alumni are thinking and doing