

Dear Stags,

The Student Alumni Association and the Office of Parent Engagement & Philanthropy reached out to your families to give them the opportunity to send you some words of encouragement as you enter the final stretch of your first semester here at Fairfield! We hope you enjoy this note from home! Good luck with finals! Go Stags!

Hey Jack!

We can't believe your first semester is already half way over! We are so proud of how you handled the transition to living away! You are more confident now than ever and it is nice to see you meeting new people every day and truly enjoying the college experience. Your grades have been amazing which is a true testament to your work ethic. We know you will be successful in whatever you do.

We love you and miss you and can't wait to see you soon! Keep up the hard work it will pay off!

Love, Mom and Dad
